TREBLE CHOIR

Dr. Gaylon Robinson is the Director of Choral Activities at Central Connecticut State University, where he conducts the Chorale, University Singers, and Vocal Jazz Ensemble. He holds the Ph.D. degree in Music Education/Choral Conducting from Florida State University and both the Master of Music degree in Music Education and Bachelor of Science degree in Music from the University of Memphis.

As a conductor, Dr. Robinson has had the honor of conducting choral performances in such concert venues as the Knight Concert Hall in Miami, FL, the Cannon Center in Memphis, TN, and David Geffen Hall in New York's Lincoln Center. In addition, Dr. Robinson has served as a choral adjudicator and clinician at choral festivals in Arkansas, Washington D.C., Georgia, Illinois, Mississippi, Missouri, and Tennessee. Dr. Robinson is an active guest conductor, having led honor choirs in Tennessee, Arkansas, Georgia, and Florida.

Dr. Robinson has led his choirs to appearances at the state, national, and regional conventions of the American Choral Directors Association and multiple appearances at the State Conference of the Tennessee Music Education Association.

Dr. Robinson is past president of the West Tennessee Vocal Music Educators Association. In addition, he has served as state and regional chair of the Women's Chorale for the Tennessee Music Education Association. Dr. Robinson currently holds professional membership with the Connecticut Music Education Association, Tennessee Music Education Association, National Association for Music Education, and the American Choral Directors Association.

MIXED CHOIR

Frank Martignetti is an Assistant Professor and the inaugural director of the Music Education Program at Sacred Heart University, and Director of Music/Organist at First Church Congregational, Fairfield, CT. He previously served as Chair, Department of Music & Performing Arts at the University of Bridgeport, also leading choral activities, and additionally as a church musician in Manhattan, Connecticut, and Ohio. A K-12 teacher for ten years, he received the New Haven Symphony Orchestra's 2006 Excellence in Music Teaching Award. As a conductor, Martignetti has prepared singers for performances at Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center, both at UB and as the Artistic Director of the Mystic River Chorale from 2008 to

2021. Dr. Martignetti was a finalist for the 2015 American Prize in Choral Conducting for his work with the Chorale, which included regional premieres and K-12 partnerships. Guest conducting appearances include the Sacred Heart University Orchestra (2022), the CMEA Southern Region HS Festival (2022), New Haven Oratorio Choir (2021), Hamden Symphony Orchestra (2013), New York University choirs (2013) and University Glee Club of New Haven (2005). Dr. Martignetti has been published in leading journals and by Oxford University Press. Board and officer roles include AGO, ACDA, CMS, and the Greater Bridgeport Symphony. Rochester (BA), Eastman (BM), Cincinnati (MM), NYU (Ph.D.)

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Known for his commitment and versatility trumpeter Haneef N. Nelson is continuing to make his mark on the music of his mentors. Composer/Arranger, Bandleader, Sideman, Musical Curator, and Educator, Haneef continues to solidify his place as one of the pillars in his community.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, Haneef moved to Uniondale, NY and was raised there.

Haneef's early music education continued at the famed Jazzmobile Program where he studied trumpet, music theory, as well as played in ensembles taught by jazz luminaries such as Eddie Preston, Cecil Bridgewater, Dr. Donald Byrd; John Stubblefield; Frank Foster; Charles Davis; Roland Guerrero as well as several others. Donald Byrd became a mentor outside of Jazzmobile along with his high school music teachers Cedric J. Lemmie from Uniondale High School and Dave Burns from the Long Island High School of the Arts.

These 3 mentors encouraged Haneef to apply for and attend the African-American Music Department at the Hartt School to be taught by its founder Jackie McLean. Along with Jackie McLean, Haneef studied with Steve Davis, Nat Reeves, Raymond Williams, Chris Casey, Mary DiPaola, and Roger Murtha.

His passion for music also translated into a passion for education. He has been teaching Trumpet, Improvisation and Jazz Techniques for over 26 years. As a teacher he encourages students to learn how to play their instruments as well as to learn the culture and traditions of the music they are playing. Haneef has taught at Amherst College, Keene State College, the Vermont Jazz Center, The Artist Collective, Community Music School of Springfield in addition to his time spent working as a teaching assistant at the Jackie McLean Institute of Jazz within the Hartt School along with a private studio. He currently teaches at the University of Rhode Island and is the Composition Fellow at the Hartt School's Composition program. Haneef has given masterclasses and workshops in various educational and professional settings and has spent time recording with various Gospel and Jazz Artists.

Haneef holds a Bachelor of Music in African-American Music Study from the Hartt School a Master's Degree in Jazz Composition and Arranging from UMASS Amherst, and is currently working towards his Doctor of Musical Arts Degree in Composition at the Hartt School.

ORCHESTRA

Conductor, violist, and educator Nadya Potemkina directs Wesleyan University Orchestra and Concert Choir, coaches chamber ensembles, teaches courses in instrumental conducting, music theory, and orchestral literature, and is the music director of FluteFest and AD HOC BACH, both performance and community engagement initiatives. Professor Potemkina remains active as a violist and welcomes every opportunity to play chamber music with her colleagues and to perform works by student composers.

Prior to Wesleyan, Professor Potemkina enjoyed a number of guest-conducting opportunities in the United States and abroad, with regional, community, and youth orchestras, served as an assistant conductor of The University of Memphis Orchestras, as the music director of Mid- South Young People's Orchestras in Memphis, TN, and was a founding conductor of Memphis Occasional Orchestra, an all-volunteer community outreach ensemble.

Nadya Potemkina holds degrees in viola performance and pedagogy, and choral and instrumental conducting from Herzen State Pedagogical University (Saint Petersburg, Russia), The University of Northern Iowa, Ball State University, and The University of Memphis.

CONCERT BAND

Thomas A. Scavone is the K-12 Fine and Performing Arts Supervisor for the East Hartford (CT) Public Schools.. This past year, East Hartford was designated a NAMM Foundation Best Community for Music Education for the first time. Tom has served on numerous state and national Arts committees, most recently as a member of the CT Arts Standards Roll-out Team. In 2012, he was recognized as the CT representative for 50 Music Directors in the

U.S. Who Make a Difference and was selected as a Yale Distinguished Music Educator. He has been the Assistant Director with the Greater Hartford Youth Wind Ensemble at the Hart School of Music and serves as a guest conductor and adjudicator in Pennsylvania, Ohio and throughout the Northeastern United States.

Tom's school ensembles have been recognized nationally for excellence and have performed at the Tournament of Roses Parade, the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade and the 53rd Presidential Inaugural Parade. In addition, his groups have been featured guest performers at the United States Military Academy's West Point Jazz Festival, the All-New England Music Festival and with the United States Air Force Academy's Falconaires. His jazz ensembles have been recognized as outstanding groups at various festivals including Berklee School of Music, UMASS-Amherst and the University of New Hampshire.

Tom received his undergraduate degree at UMASS-Amherst, his graduate degree from the Dana School of Music at Youngstown (OH) State University and completed his Educational Leadership Certificate at Southern CT State University. Tom resides in Southington, CT with his wife Connie and two daughters, Francesca and Victoria.
