Joseph Case High School "Cardinals" Marching Band 2022-2023 Biography

The Joseph Case High School "Cardinals" Marching Band has received many accolades over the years. They compete extensively throughout New England and are well known and respected for their discipline, movement, musicality and showmanship. The Joseph Case Band has entertained many large audiences in numerous venues over the years and is widely received throughout the community. The Joseph Case Band certainly is a source of "Swansea Pride" in our home town and surrounding region.

The "Cardinals "have won numerous accolades over the last twenty years: Our highest honor to date is winning our 12 foot trophy at Nationals at the Met Life stadium in New Jersey. We have received all caption awards in division 1open for Best Music, Best Percussion, Best Color Guard, Best Visual and Best Over All Effect. We also received the Cadet award for Excellence, this award is only awarded to one band in the division. In 2015 we won (For the first time) an 11 foot trophy at nationals at the Navy - Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis Maryland.

We were also awarded 1st place at the New England Championships this past November in Medford Ma. Also winning caption awards for Best Music, Best Color Guard and Best Drum Major.

Including: Massachusetts State Champions, New England Champions, and United States Scholastic National Champions. We have won nationally, regionally and prominent championships throughout New England in marching band organizations NESBA-New England Scholastic Band Association MAC-Musical Arts Conference USBands –an organization based out of Allentown PA.

Joseph Case is known for our Award Winning Color Guard, Horn Line and Percussion. We have Dynamic Drum Majors, Captains and Section Leaders. We have won Best Drum Major, Best Color Guard, Best Percussion and Music awards numerous times all over the region.

This year's leaders consist of Drum Majors: Aiden Costa, Colin Treloar and student conductor Amelia Salvador. Our most widely known salutes are crowd pleasing and draw attention, cheers and standing ovations for their riveting display of power, visual appeal and precise arm and feet movement.

The Band is under the direction of Richard T. Cordeiro. His devoted staff consists of Pamela Ried, Shawn Lewis, Samantha Hackenson, Hayleigh Kelley, Sarah Mendes, Evan Ferry and Lenny Machado.

Our support group consists of very dedicated and supportive music parents known as C.H.A.M.P.S. The president of the CHAMPS is Natalie Salvador, Vice President Jennifer Smith, Treasurer Kayden Pintarelli, Secretary Kate Treloar and Public Relations Suzanne Grillo.

Last Train Home

This show depicts the story of our main character, Peggy, who grew up in a rural town and studied to become a teacher. Always fond of singing, she needed to know if she could have ever made it big. Peggy travels to New York City, taking odd jobs as a waitress, looking for her big break, which comes when she has the opportunity to sing with the Duke Ellington Orchestra at The Savoy. She travels the world performing with The Ellington Orchestra, but slowly realizes that fame is nothing without family and a place to call home.
