September 16th, 2023

Dear Friends and Family Members:

Welcome to The Maloney High School Halftime All The Time Marching Band Show! We are thrilled to host so many incredible groups from all over New England and present an amazing night of marching arts! For many of our groups performing this evening, this is the first competitive performance of the season! We hope that you enjoy these premier performances and the beginning of an exciting USBands season in Connecticut.

I would like to thank our Meriden friends and colleagues at our sister high school, Orville H. Platt High School and their director, Mr. Ricardo Valentin for joining us this evening. I would also like to thank the many schools across the region for coming to Meriden this evening to be a part of this collaborative event. Lastly, we would like to thank Mr. Jason DeGroff and the University of New Haven for taking the time to join us for our finale performance this evening!

On behalf of The Maloney High School Band, The City of Meriden, The Meriden Board of Education, the Maloney Music Boosters and The Meriden Community, We would like to welcome you here this evening and thank you for taking the time to support these fine schools and arts education across New England.

We hope you enjoy your time in Meriden this evening as you sit back and enjoy “Half Time All The Time” at Falcon Field!

Sincerely,

Brian R. Cyr

About the Middletown High School Marching Band

Middletown High School was founded in 1840 and is the oldest continually running public high school in the state of Connecticut. It is with the help and dedication of several band parents and music supporters, we are able to put on a halftime show the community loves.

Fall 2023 Show

“Imagine”

"You may say that I'm a dreamer, but I'm not the only one" Conceptually, Imagine creates a unique environment that motivates whimsical events to unfold. Musically, "Pure Imagination" from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory is woven throughout the entire show, culminating in an impactful arrival of the arrangement with a contemporary musical treatment. Embark with us on a whimsical adventure into a world where dreams can become reality.
